

JENNIFER GRAY

Represented by The NWT Group
817-987-3600 • CarolynKane@theNWTgroup.com

NBC WTVJ, Miami Florida 2011-Present

Weekend Morning Show Meteorologist & Feature Reporter

- Deliver the weather and co-anchor two, one-hour shows for the Saturday and Sunday editions of South Florida Today.
- Cover severe weather in the field, as well as floods and weather related stories.
- Help produce two 30-minute hurricane specials that focused on hurricane preparedness and safety.
- Fill-in meteorologist for the weekday morning shows and weekday evening shows as needed.
- Report various stories through multimedia venues, including Internet, Facebook and Twitter; uploaded stories to YouTube.com, Facebook, Twitter and various other social networking medias

Florida Insider Fishing Report & Beyond the Reef 2011-Present

Co-Host Florida's number one fishing show & currently producing a new show for TV

- Write, produce, and co-host a 90-minute fishing show on Sun Sports that focused on fishing across the state of Florida.
- Give captains' reports from nine different regions across the state. Talk about new fishing gadgets and rigging techniques for various species.
- Raise awareness on conservation issues that plague our oceans and Florida's fisheries.
- Travel the state giving seminars about conservation and how weather and climate impacts fishing.
- Currently producing on and hosting "Beyond The Reef" in conjunction with the Guy Harvey Ocean Foundation.
- Travel the Caribbean and North America, researching sharks and other marine life, to help raise awareness about sustaining our fisheries.

KTBS 3; Shreveport, Louisiana 2009 - 2011

Morning Show Meteorologist • Feature Reporter

- Extensively covered three (3) tornado outbreaks, record heat waves, an ice storm and historic flooding in the Arklatex
- Weekday Meteorologist for Shreveport's #1 morning newscast as well as 30-minute severe weather specials
- Proudly covered Super Bowl XLIV in Miami, including live shots, events, late-breaking news stories as well as local and national weather reports throughout the week
- Delivered engaging and informative presentations to junior high and high schools regarding weather safety, the importance of attending school and how knowledge is power
- Conducted continuous workshops at Northwestern State University teaching students in TV presence and on the chroma wall, virtual sets, title cards and more
- Reported various stories through multimedia venues, including Internet, Facebook and Twitter; uploaded stories to YouTube.com, Facebook, Twitter and various other social networking medias

NBC WTVJ; Miami, Florida 2007-2009

Morning Show Meteorologist • Feature Reporter

- Covered devastating weather stories, including Hurricanes Ike and Gustav, and Tropical Storm Fay from Key West as well as reported live shots for MSNBC during Tropical Storm Fay
- Honored by reporting for the Weather Channel during several flooding events as well as live shots for Orlando, Washington DC, and Chicago
- Created and delivered impressive reports for special events, including the Miami Boat Show and the Food Network's Wine and Food Festival
- Covered Dwyane Wade's return from the Beijing Olympic games, Alonso Mourning's "Zo's Summer Groove," and interviewed sports stars such as Jason Taylor and Juan Pablo Montoya
- Regular guest on the most popular sports radio show, WQAM as a "Friday Morning Sports" guest as well as on Saturday mornings for a fishing show
- Shaped alluring stories on a myriad of subjects, including college entrance exams, professional football as well as sail fishing
- During tenure in Miami, became very involved within the community and active in Big Brothers Big Sisters of Broward, and was the Charter President for 6 Degrees—a young professionals organization that raises money to benefit Big Brothers Big Sisters
- Actively involved in the National Alliance for Thrombosis and Thrombophilia, helping raise awareness for blood clots, especially in young women; wrote articles for their publication and spoke at events, raising awareness
- Regularly presented at schools as well as city council meetings and hurricane readiness seminars
- Hosted many events and even participated and won 'Dancing With The Stars in Miami'

ABC KTBS-3; Shreveport, Louisiana 2005-2007

Weekend Meteorologist

- Delivered live and pre-recorded weather broadcasts three (3) days a week as well as general assignment reporting
- Aired a special series at the National Hurricane Center in Miami 'Tracking Disaster'
- Presented wall-to-wall coverage for eight (8) hours during Hurricane Rita as well as a weeklong series and a live 30-minute special on severe weather
- Formulated, organized and oversaw broad complex ideas from conception to completion
- Planned and coordinated special events, working remotely as well as onsite
- Improved professional and community relations; increased ratings per market share

NBC KBTX-4; Beaumont, Texas 2003-2005

Morning Meteorologist

- Co-anchored and aired weather for 'Hometown Today'
- Covered Hurricanes Claudette and Grace in 2003, and Hurricane Ivan in 2004
- Created, developed, wrote and reported a weekly series 'Golden Apple Award' that rewards teachers in Southeast Texas, which is still being aired today

Good Morning America; New York City, New York 2002

Intern

- Worked in the field and series department assisting producers on shoots and news stories
- Regularly attended the show in the studio and helped organize the '50 States in 50 Weeks' campaign

- Sent to Charleston to collaborate on the South Carolina show as well as assisted in producing weather maps for Tony Perkins

Northwestern State University; Natchitoches, Louisiana 1999-2002

Reporter • Anchor • Weathercaster

- Reported, anchored and forecasted the weather for the campus television station, NSU 22
- Wrote, shot, produced and edited two (2) packages a week for the newscast
- Shot and produced videos for the Alumni Association

EDUCATION:

B.S. in Geosciences, Broadcast Meteorology Program, Mississippi State University; Mississippi State, Mississippi

B.A. in Broadcast Journalism, Minor in Spanish, Northwestern State University (NSU); Natchitoches, Louisiana

Estudio Sampere, NSU Study Abroad Program

AFFILIATIONS:

- AMS Seal of Approval from the American Meteorology Society
- Member of the National Weather Association
- Big Brothers Big Sisters
- Make-A-Wish Foundation of South Florida
- Life member of the Coastal Conservation Association
- Guy Harvey Ocean Foundation
- National Alliance for Thrombosis and Thrombophilia