

Tyler Butler

Represented by The NWT Group
817.987.3600 DavidChristopher@NWTgroup.com

Experience

Anchor/Reporter, KTUL, Tulsa, OK

December 2016 – Present

Weekend Anchor/ Mid-Shore Bureau Chief, WBOC, Salisbury, MD August 2012 – December 2016

- Anchored Saturday/Sunday evening newscasts on WBOC
- Produced and anchored 10PM newscast on sister station FOX 21
- Radio news updates in primetime
- On-air reporter covering stories in five counties on Maryland's Eastern Shore
- Chief reporter on Maryland state government issues, periodically reporting from Annapolis
- Sourced, researched, wrote, shot, and edited stories for all broadcasts, usually a package and additional vo/sot per day; occasionally packaging two separate stories
- Performed live shots every evening out of self-operated microwave live truck, sometimes from helicopter
- Developed large network of contacts to source and cover stories in a broad geographic area
- Contributed daily to the WBOC website and various social media accounts

Education

Salisbury University, Salisbury, MD

May 2012

Bachelor of Arts, Communications with a concentration in Journalism and Media Production; Minor, Psychology

Skills

- Experienced with JVC family of camera equipment, as well as the Panasonic P2
- Editing proficiency with Adobe Premier, Final Cut 7, and Avid Media Composer

Awards

- 2015 Associated Press for "Best Multi-Media Journalist"
- 2015 Associated Press for "Best Spot News Coverage"
- 2015 Associated Press for "Best Feature or Human Interest"

- 2014 Associated Press Award, Chesapeake Bay Region for best continuing coverage of a story “Controversial Oyster Project in the Little Choptank”

Activities/Interests

- Active member of DeLorean Mid-Atlantic Club; former Secretary and President, currently Vice-President.
- Model Railroading – member of the Delmarva Model Railroad Club
- Aerial photography/videography using drone as a hobby
- PADI-certified Scuba diver

