

Malcolm Johnson

Represented by The NWT Group
817.987.3600 Lizhart@NWTgroup.com

Professional Experience

Reporter, NECN, Boston, MA

January 2018 – Present

Reporter/Anchor, WFTX, Fort Myers, FL

April 2015 – January 2018

- Lead reporter for three hour morning newscast
- Wrote and delivered 6-8 live shots daily, including breaking news
- Enterprisde and reported stories for morning and 6:00 pm newscast
- Engaged viewers and story contacts through social media
- Fill-in anchored for all newscasts
- Represented station at local community and civic events

Multimedia Journalist, WGXA, Macon, GA

October 2013 – April 2015

- Wrote, shot and edited stories for a daily turnaround
- Live reporting for high-profile, emergent news, weather and sports events
- Cultivated sources to bring original reporting to WGXA broadcasts, web and social media
- Represented WGXA at local community and civic events across Bibb County, GA

Web Reporter, WUSA, Washington, DC

October 2012 – October 2013

- Developed & covered human interest stories in the greater Washington area
- Sports feature reporting, including High School to Professional athletics
- Uploaded photo galleries and generated graphics to compliment stories, enhancing the viewer's online experience

Production Assistant, WUSA, Washington, DC

September 2012 – October 2013

- Assisted with numerous daily WUSA9 newscasts by operating a teleprompter, floor directing, script organization, arranging set pieces and posting story content on WUSA9.com as well as writing news ticker headlines
- Assisted in various production elements with the studio team, mainly through ENPS, Avid News Cutter & Edius

Intern, USA Today HSS.com, Washington, DC

May 2012 – August 2012

- Covered high school sports in Washington D.C., Maryland and Virginia
- Worked with players, coaches and athletic directors to create stories of interest

- Co-author of “PRIME” Magazine, a regional High School football preview magazine

Community Involvement

Curriculum Coordinator, Save Our Students, Fort Myers, FL September 2016 – Present

- Construct a six-week curriculum for a free summer camp centered around low-income youth between fourteen and eighteen years old
- Delivered presentation to Lee County School Superintendent resulting in $30,000 dollars in grants to fund the camp

Assistant Coach, Fort Myers High School Lacrosse, Fort Myers, FL September 2015 – Present

- Develop players on-field skills
- Mentor players off the field & help prepare them for college

Education

West Virginia University May 2012

Bachelor of Arts: Combined Major in Media Communications; Sports Communication; and History